

An Architectural Guidebook Great Malvern Worcestershire

ISBN-10: 1518853064

ISBN-13: 978-1518853067

AVAILABLE on Amazon.co.uk £19.80 free p&p

This book explores Architecture in England chronologically using as a case study the small town of Great Malvern Worcestershire. This practical and usable guide, with handy index and walking trails, will be of interest not only to the town's residents and its visitors but also to others as a simple introduction to the building styles that on close inspection can be found around many towns in England. This Guide-book is written by a practising freelance Historic Building Conservation Consultant with an in depth knowledge of the built environment and architectural periods in history

LINK

http://www.amazon.co.uk/Architectural-Guidebook-Great-Malvern-Worcestershire/dp/1518853064/ref=sr\_1\_2?s=books&ie=UTF8&qid=1446468444&sr=1-

About the Author

Louisa Davidson is a practising freelance Historic Building Conservation Consultant for RDA in the Midlands UK with an in depth knowledge of the built environment and architectural periods in history. She has over 30 years' experience and interest in the arts, architectural history, social history, education, genealogy and building conservation. Louisa Davidson is a graduate with a Masters qualification in Historic Environment Conservation from the University of Birmingham, Ironbridge Institute, a course accredited by the Institute of Historic Building Conservation (IHBC). Louisa Davidson is an Associate Member of the IHBC, "Accredited in conservation practice that evaluates change in the built and historic environment."